As the year draws to a close and the spirit of giving fills the air, I want to take a moment to thank you - our patrons, neighbors, and friends - for making Westerly Library & Wilcox Park such a vibrant and cherished part of our community.

This December, consider giving the gift of knowledge, imagination, and connection. A library card is free, but its value is immeasurable. Whether you're looking for a cozy winter read, streaming movies, language learning tools, Makerspace equipment to make a personalized gift, or tech help, we have something for everyone. We also have curated Binge Boxes and reading recommendations - perfect for holiday gift ideas!

And as the temperatures drop, Wilcox Park remains a peaceful haven. Bundle up and enjoy a brisk walk among the trees or bring the family for a festive photo under the twinkling lights. The park is a gift in itself - open to all, every day of the year.

Don't miss our December programs & Holiday Happenings: storytimes, craft/gift giving workshops, wreathmaking, and more. And don't forget to pick up some Westerly Library & Wilcox Park branded totes, tees, hats, and mugs. Round out your gift giving - for that special someone or just for yourself, with some yummy treats from The Candy Box, who will be in The Pop-Up @ Coy from December 16-20.

From all of us at Westerly Library & Wilcox Park, thank you for your continued support. May your holidays be filled with warmth, wonder, and the joy of shared stories.

Warmly,

Brigitte Hopkins
Executive Director

P.S. As a non-profit library & park, we rely on financial gifts to help support operations, from general upkeep and maintenance to programs and services. national cocoa day

December 13th is National Cocoa Day! It's recognized to honor the historical significance of cocoa, which was first mass-produced in the American colonies on December 13th, 1765 by James Baker. The roots of cocoa trace back to ancient civilizations, over 2000 years ago, where the Mayans and Aztecs were among the first to cultivate and consume it.

Celebrate it with us in The Pop-Up at Coy on Saturday, December 13th from 11 AM-1 PM!

Serve yourself a hot cup of cocoa, and trade bookmarks and book recommendations. Enjoy a cozy coloring page and warm conversation.

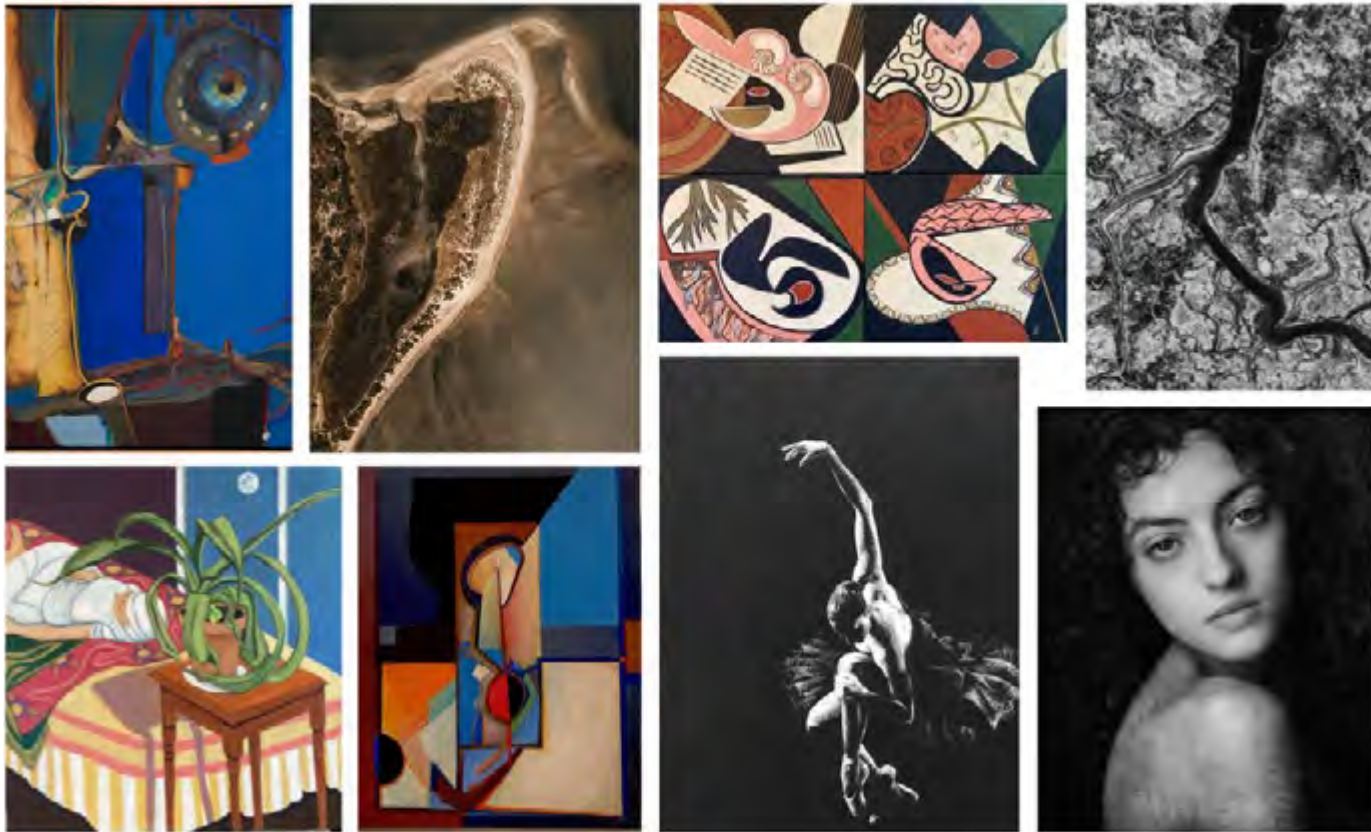

Cocoa and conversation will be available starting at 11 am and continue while supplies last.

December Exhibition | Artistic Visions of the Butcher Family

This month's exhibit will feature works by local artists and family, Aubrey Feliciano, Jill Butcher, William Butcher Jr. and William Butcher III! Head to the Hoxie Gallery from 5-7 pm Wednesday, December 3rd for an opportunity to meet the artists and enjoy light bites. Works can be viewed in the Hoxie Gallery from Wednesday, December 3rd-Thursday, January 1st, during library hours.

About the artists:

William Butcher's paintings explore personal visions with images derived from life experiences such as landscapes from above and seascapes from below the waves. With the use of texture from various materials and the use of acrylic mediums and paints these images and visual ideas are brought to life.

William Butcher III is a professional photographer by trade focusing on portraiture and various commercial ventures. He is also a painter who is highly experimental with texture and the use of numerous acrylic paint systems and mediums. William's personal photographic work includes the use of a camera equipped drone and various other vantage points for his powerful imagery.

Drawing on an extensive background as a ballet dancer Aubrey Feliciano, who is also a college trained visual artist, has brought to life the wonder the beauty and the intense physical difficulty of this art form through her marvelous command of drawing. Also through drawing Aubrey has explored the wonders and mystery of various sea creatures for which she has a passion for.

Jill Abele Butcher has a deep talent and commanding passion for painting. Through extensive drawing and with an innate vision and skill for design, Jill brings to life her personal images through her command of the acrylic paint and medium system.
